

THE FEDERALISM REPORT

INSTITUTIONAL SUBSCRIPTION FORM

The Federalism Report was included with institutional journal subscriptions to Publius prior to the Spring/Summer 2001 edition, which was Volume 24, Issue 1-2. Starting with that issue, only members of APSA (the American Political Science Association) Organized Section on Federalism and Intergovernmental Relations, the IACFS (International Association of Centers for Federal Studies), and certain federalism researchers and related professionals received issues as a part of their respective professional memberships to these organizations. Based upon continued interest by some libraries and academic departments, we will again offer institutional, as well as individual subscriptions. Please forward this form to your college or university library as a request to subscribe, or pass along to your department library resources committee, graduate dean, or other interested parties. Any institutions which formerly subscribed and wish to complete the serial holdings of The Federalism Report may request issues from Volume 24 through the present to complete those missed issues as a complimentary service with any new subscription received.
